FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
1101 Bedford St.
Stamford, Connecticut

This contemporary design church makes apparent the ancient Christian symbol icthus—Jesus Christ, God's Son, Savior. Wallace Harrison was architect, Gabriel Loire of Chartres cast the 20,000 chunks of inch thick glass. There are 152 pre-cast panels of concrete covered with slate.

Dear Mary
This is the church I spoke about. See you soon I hope.
My best to Pete
Mary

Photographed & Published by Andre Farkas, Stamford, Connecticut

S-56932-2

25

5¢ U.S. POSTAGE

POST CARD

Address

Mrs Peter F. Malloy
Indian Spring Rd.
Crawford,
N.J.